

Happy November! Hopefully you all are having a great month and looking forward to Thanksgiving (a favorite holiday) being spent with family and friends!

The Scare on the Square Haunted House saw 218 children and adults being frightened by the hauntings above the library! There were clowns, a Mad Hatter, dolls and just creepy people walking around armed with frightful items! And ALL enjoyed themselves and numerous people went through twice! We hope you will join us for some frightfully spooky fun next year here in Chrisman!

Our latest Story Time was November 6th and we had a very special guest reader, Trisha Owen, the Chrisman Elementary School Librarian! Mrs. Owen read "The Scarecrow's Hat", written and illustrated by Ken Brown and "Mouse's First Fall", written by Lauren Thompson, which the children thoroughly enjoyed! The kiddos then went into the back room to work on a "harvest" picture, which when finished, they left with their creation, a treat and a drink! All were very happy! Our THANKS to Trisha who made our Story Time very special! The next Story Time is November 20 at 3:30! Hope to see you at the library!

The Great Puzzle Race Championship was on October 30, with four winning and returning teams from past months. They attempted to put together a 500-piece Halloween themed puzzle and the winning team, with a time of one hour, thirteen minutes, consisted of Dede Henry, Vicky Riggen, Wanda Tingley and Rachel Crunk! Congratulations winners! They received a trophy, which they signed and left in the library for all to see! The Great Puzzle Race will begin again in January! Call or come in to reserve your spot!

We have some new large print books by new authors and favorite authors so we hope you'll come in to check them out. They are:

"Dark Intercept", written by Brian Andrews
"The December Market", written by RaeAnne Thayne
"Facing the Dawn", written by Cynthia Ruchti
"Fox Crossing", written by Melinda Metz
"Independent Bones", written by Carolyn Haines
"Do this for me", written by Eliza Kennedy
